THE METROPOLITAN PAIR. Undiminished Attendance-The Receipts 8738,148 01.

Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather yes. of the men. terday, the Fair was well attended, many of the visitors being country people. In the evening the immense throng rendered it almost impossible to move about from place to place with any orgree of comfort, and every department was well supported. The selling was continued during the day with much spirit, and several of the tables last evening were but scantily covred, many of the choicest articles that the Fair opened with having been disposed of for handsome prices

The Fire Department, New-Jersey, Norwalk, Welsh. Methodist, Baptist and other stands were liberally patronized. The Roman Department also proved a r attractive feature and was crowded throughout the day. The articles exhibited here, consisting of jewelry, small statuettes, pictures, ambrotypes, photographs, and so forth, found ready purchasers at good prices.

A ourious mistake occurred on Tuesday at the Jewelry Department. A beautiful diamond set, marked $350, was offered here for sale. A lady visitor, admiring the articles, inquired the price, and was informed three fifty (meaning three dollars and fifty cents). Thinking the set cheap at that sum, though not really understanding its true value, she purchased the glittering jewels and went her way. Soon afterward, the lady manager, missing the set, asked what had become of it, and was informed that it had been sold for $3 50. The young lady, on learning the mistake she had made, immediate ly searched the building for the purchaser, and her perseverance was finally rewarded by finding the lady. An explanation was made and the mistake soon recti-

The Mineral Department, placed undesignedly in rather an out of the way corner in the second story of the building adjoining the restaurant, is well worth a visit. The specimens of sulphuret of lead are very fine, particularly one large one from Galena, Ill., which is beautifully adorned with a covering of pyrites. A curious specimen of fossil coal-cosmiposa-is ex hibited. It was taken from the lower Silurian formation at Galena, and its pores are partially filled with lead.

WORKS OF ART AT THE PAIR.

We are requested to state that the pictures presented by artists to the Metropolitan Fair will only be disposed of at aution at the close of the Exhibition, and that the report which has been set affoat that they can be pur chased at private sale, is incorrect.

THE SEASON-TICKET FRAUD.

The plan adopted by Theodore Moss, in charge of the "ticket department," to have the names of holders of season tickets recorded, has already been found to work admirably. Yeterday morning a number of visitors refused to have their names registered. They were admitted, however, but their tickets were marked for identification. How could I bear to have it said of me in the future, that I stood idly by, in all the vigor of youth, and saw this great struggle to preserve our Country and our Covernment from destraction, and took no part therein. My own children, should I ever have any, would not respect me as my brother should be arranging business plans, till this work of suppressing the Rebellion is accomplished.

A few days since he sent some money from New-Orleans with the request that $50 should be invested in a range, such as he saw in Providence, and presented to the Metropolitan Fair; for, said he, "I believe it will gladden the heart of some woman who will purchase it, and the proceeds will lighten the care, bind up the wound, or smoothe the pillow of some soldier-perhaps myself-God only knows."

THE CHILDREN'S GIFT TO THE FAIR. The enthusiasm for the Fair has extended to the children, and they have planned an exhibition of a novel kind in the production of a play in which they shall be the only actors. This is none other than the old story of Cinderella, or the Glass Slipper, which has been put into a little play by Mr. Fitz Hugh Ludlow, and is to be performed by a number of children. ont has taken the chief labor and all Mrs. Gen.
